

I benefit from the traffic & weather channels on XM radio I travel a good part of the day and this is a much needed service. When I travel across many states in the same day I can check the traffic far ahead to the next destination I am headed. I also pay for this service and feel that I should be able to. Please do not listen to the NAB and take this right away from honest paying Americans.